3) Under the Amending Regulation of 1935, Co-operative Land Mortgage Bank includes primary Land mortgage Co-operative Societies also and therefore as per section 53, the first bye-laws of even these Societies have to be approved by Government. But the amending Regulation has added a proviso at the end of Sect: 53, that the Govt may delegate to the Registrar the power of approval to the first bye-laws or alterations thereof. There seem to be therefore no objection in delegating this power to the Registrar as proposed by him

To

P.H.Krishna Rao,Esq.,M.A.,
Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Local Self Government Department, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that when a Land Mortgage Co-operative Society is organized a set of Byelaws is prepared for it by the Department and generally accepted by the society without any modification. The byelaws drawn up by the Department are strictly modelled on the Model Byelaws already approved by Government. Thus the first byelaws of the Land Mortgage Co-operative Societies do not vary and are uniform. Under the old Co-operative Societies' Regulation, the Registrar had powers to approve the byelaws of primary land mortgage co-operative societies himself but under the amended Regulation, by defining a Land Mortgage Bank to include primary land mortgage co-operative Societies also, Section 53 makes it necessary that Government approval should be obtained for the first byelaws of even - primary land mortgage co-operative societies as also their amendments The facts mentioned above would make the approval of Government merely formal and the work of starting the societies soon after registration would be delayed to some extent. The proviso under Section 53 however provides the delegation of this power to the Registrar by Government and I therefore request you to kindly move the Government to delegate the power to me in the case of primary land mortgage Co-operative Societies.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Registrar.
